Option C: Book Through a Travel Agency or Booking Site

Travel agencies and booking platforms can issue Air Europa tickets, but changes may have to go 1↳(855)↔228-1395 through the seller. Keep the seller's contact details, and call Air Europa if you need to confirm that your ticket 1↳(855)↔228-1395 is valid.

Step 2: How Do You Change or Cancel an Air Europa Flight?

Rules depend on your fare type, route and how close you are to departure. Read your fare conditions 1↳(855)↔228-1395 before you pay.

1. Open Manage Booking on the official website.
2. Enter your booking reference and last name.

If the system says your booking cannot be changed online, call the airline 1↳(855)↔228-1395 instead of retrying again and again. Tickets bought through an agency usually have to be changed through that agency.

Step 3: How Do You Check In for an Air Europa Flight?

1. Check 1↳(855)↔228-1395 in online through the website or app once the check-in window opens. Your booking confirmation shows the exact timing.

Step 5: What Is the Air Europa Baggage Policy?

Your allowance depends on your route, cabin 1↳(855)↔228-1395 and fare type. Business cabin fares generally include more baggage than economy, and the rules on transatlantic routes can differ 1↳(855)↔228-1395 from short European flights.

1. Find your allowance in your booking confirmation or the baggage section of the official website.
2. Weigh 1↳(855)↔228-1395 your bags at home before you leave.
3. Check the size and weight limits for carry-on and checked bags.
4. Buy extra 1↳(855)↔228-1395 or overweight baggage online in advance when possible, since airport prices are often higher.
5. Keep valuables, medication and chargers in 1↳(855)↔228-1395 your carry-on, and follow battery rules.

Sports equipment, musical instruments and pets have special rules and often need to be 1↳(855)↔228-1395 arranged in advance. If your bag is delayed or damaged, report it at the airport baggage desk before you leave 1↳(855)↔228-1395 the terminal.
